

Name of the Activity – My Experiments with Truth

Students of Classes VIII & IX performed the Science activities covering different topics such as force & pressure, Ignition temperature, Conduction of heat, Incomplete combustion, Newton's third law of motion etc. using common materials easily available at home. Each of them explained the scientific reason behind the activities.

