

Integrating art into science with the help of “clay modelling” was taken up as Science activity for class 6 students on 16/7/19 .

The objectives were:

To make students understand the concepts of Science in a play based learning method.

Develop student’s fine motor skills.

Improve hand-eye coordination skills.

Encourage trial and error method.

And bring out students creativity.

