

Indigenous Sports

An Intra-class sports match was played between class XI students of DAV Public School, Kailash Hills to promote the indigenous games played in Australia and India. Buroinjin is a ball game played by the Kaba Kabi people of South Queensland, Australia. The aim of the game is to run with the ball and cross over a line at the other end of the field without being touched by an opponent. Two teams of six students each played the game. Later, the students also played a match of Seven Stones (Pithoo) which is a local game played in India. The teams were cheered by the entire class XI who sat as spectators. The school principal, Mrs. Ira Khanna, along with the school Manager Prof. N.K. Sehgal and the principal of DAV Public School, Vasant Kunj, Mrs. Anju Puri saw the match and encouraged the students.
