

Worldly waters

"Water water everywhere, not a drop to drink." Water Crisis have become a global concern. Acute water shortage, and water wastage are problems the world needs to deal with. Children were made to compare water usage and wastage patterns of different countries, and an online petition was shared all over social media. Children actively took part in Project Boond rally, and discussed over sustainable water management.

