

A Workshop was conducted on 14.09.23 on the topic "Reflective teaching" for the teachers of DAV Public School Kailash Hills, New Delhi, showcasing the best and unique techniques of being a reflective and effective teachers who can develop, enrich and evaluate their own practices and can improve upon their professional skills and identify their strengths and limitations. The Resource person Ms. Vandana Tandon from Times of India NIE emphasised on to change the teachers pedagogy constantly and grow effectively to meet the needs of the diverse contexts through critical reflections.

